Acando has signed framework agreement with The Norwegian church

Acando has signed a three year framework agreement with The Norwegian church within the areas of information and enterprise architecture. The objective of the framework agreement is to establish a national ICT strategy for The Norwegian church.

The procurement under the signed agreements is budgeted to NOK 20 Million during the period.

“The agreement enables us to strengthen our position even more as a leading supplier within the area of architecture within public administration”, says Sven Ivar Mørch, Vice President, Acando in Norway.
